Any initiated ordinance may be submitted to the Council by a petition signed by not less than 1,000 (one thousand) of the qualified voters of the City.

SECTION 7.02 POWER OF REFERENDUM

The people reserve the power to approve or reject at the polls any legislation enacted by the Council which is subject of the initiative process under this Charter, except ordinances authorizing the issuance of either tax or revenue bonds, whether original or refunding bonds, shall not be subject to such referendum. Prior to or within thirty days after the effective date of any ordinance which is subject to referendum, a petition signed by not less than 1,000 (one thousand) of the qualified voters of the City may be filed with the City Secretary requesting that any such ordinance be either repealed or submitted to a vote of the people.

When such a petition has been certified as sufficient by the City Secretary, the ordinance specified in the petition shall not go into effect, or further action thereon shall be suspended if it shall have gone into effect, until and unless it is approved by the voters as herein provided.

SECTION 7.03 FORM OF PETITIONS

Initiative petition papers shall contain the full text of the proposed legislation in the form of an ordinance, including a descriptive caption. Referendum petition papers shall contain a sufficient description of the ordinance sought to be referred to identify it, or if the ordinance has been passed by Council, the full text of the ordinance sought to be referred shall be included in such papers. For a petition signature to be valid, a petition must contain, in addition to the signature, the printed name of the signer, the signer's voter registration number, the signer's residence address, the signer's ward or precinct number, and the date of signing. No signature shall be counted where there is a reason to believe it is not the actual signature of the purported signer or that it is a duplication either of name or of handwriting used in any other signature on the petition. Before the signatures on any petition paper may be counted, one of the signers of such petition paper, a qualified voter, shall make oath before the City Secretary or any other officer competent to administer oaths, that the statements made therein are true, that each signature to the paper appended is a genuine signature of the person whose name purports to be signed thereto, and that such signatures were placed thereon in that person's presence.

In examining the petition, the City Secretary shall write the letters "D.V." (declared void), in red ink opposite the names of the signers found not qualified. After completing the

If the certificate of the City Secretary shall show an initiative or referendum petition to be insufficient, the City Secretary shall notify the person filing the petition, and it may be amended within ten days from the date of such notice by filing a supplementary petition upon additional papers signed and filed as provided for in the original petition. Within thirty days after such amendment is filed, the City Secretary shall examine the amended petition and certify as to its sufficiency. If the amended petition is then found to be insufficient, no further proceedings shall be had with regard to it, except as provided in Section 7.06 below.

SECTION 7.05 COUNCIL CONSIDERATION AND SUBMISSION TO VOTERS

When the Council receives an authorized initiative petition certified by the City Secretary to be sufficient, the Council shall either: (a) pass the initiated ordinance without amendment within twenty-one days after the date of the certification to the Council; or (b) submit said initiated ordinance without amendments to a vote of the qualified voters of the City at a regular or special election to be held on the first uniform election date not earlier than 30 days after the date of the certification to the Council.

Special elections on initiated or referred ordinances shall not be held more frequently than once each six months, and no ordinance on the same subject as an initiated ordinance which has been defeated or on the same subject as a referred ordinance which has been approved at any election may be initiated by the voters within two years from the date of such election.

SECTION 7.06 RESULTS OF ELECTION

Any number of ordinances may be voted on at the same election in accordance with the provisions of this Article. If a majority of the legal votes cast is in favor of an initiated ordinance, it shall thereupon be effective as an ordinance of the City. An ordinance so adopted may be repealed or amended at any time after the expiration of two years by a vote of two thirds of the Councilmembers qualified and serving. A referred ordinance which is rejected by a majority of the legal votes cast in a referendum election shall be deemed thereupon repealed and may not be reenacted by the Council for a period of two years.

SECTION 7.07 POWER OF RECALL

The people of the City reserve the power to recall any elected officer of the City of Huntsville and may exercise such power by filing with the City Secretary a petition, signed by not less than 1,000 (one thousand) of the qualified voters of the City demanding the removal of such elected officers. The petition shall be signed and verified in the manner required for an initiative petition.

SECTION 7.08 RECALL ELECTIONS

The provisions regulating examination, certification, and amendment of initiative petitions shall apply to recall petitions. If the petition is certified by the City Secretary to be sufficient, the Council shall order an election to be held on the first uniform election date not earlier than 30 days following such certification to determine whether such officer shall be recalled.

SECTION 7.09 RESULTS OF RECALL ELECTION

If the majority of the legal votes cast at a recall election be for the recall of the officer named on the ballot, the Council shall immediately declare that office vacant, and a special election for the filling of such vacancy shall be called and held forthwith in accordance with provisions of this Charter on elections. An officer thus removed shall not be eligible to hold office again in the City of Huntsville within a period of two years from the date of the recall.
